THE CHANNING HOME.

REPORT No. 40.

The Directors of the Channing Home submit the following Report for the year ending March 31, 1908.

The Home was first opened in Channing Street in May, 1857, by Miss Harriet Ryan (afterward Mrs. John Albee), and in March, 1858, was removed to No. 13 South Street. From this site it was removed, on May 1, 1870, to No. 30 McLean Street and again on October 31, 1907 to the corner of Bellevue and Francis Streets (Longwood), Boston.

The institution has now completed a half century of existence. During this period, it has given a comfortable home to more than eleven hundred indigent women, of whom nearly four fifths have been victims of consumption in its advanced stages. The care of such patients is a serious problem in Boston, where there are probably at least four thousand cases of consumption in its contagious stage, for whom less than three hundred beds are provided by municipal and private charity. Many of these patients must be turned away from hospitals as ineligible, and remain a menace to everyone with whom they come in contact. In isolating so many patients with advanced pulmonary tuberculosis, the Channing Home has performed an invaluable work in protecting the home and the public from infection, and thus checking the spread of the disease. In view of the great need for such work, it is now the purpose of the Directors to devote the resources of the Home more exclusively to tuberculous patients.

During the last decade the common conception of tuberculosis as a hopeless disease has been greatly modified; and now it is generally regarded as largely preventable and frequently curable. An abundance of fresh air and plenty of sunlight are considered a necessity in treatment. In the old location of the Home, in a crowded section of the city, no opportunity was given to the patients to lead an out-door life. Neighboring buildings had been built to such a height as to reduce the daily sunshine to a few hours. The surroundings were crowded and noisy. We were thus forced to move to a new and better location.

A most desirable site for a new Channing Home was purchased in the spring of 1906, in Longwood, at the corner of Bellevue and Francis Streets. The lot, containing 11,800 square feet, is high and overlooks the Park System on the southwest. Plans were drawn by Messrs. Kendall, Taylor, and Stevens, and the new building, homelike and attractive in appearance, and thoroughly equipped with all modern requirements to accommodate twenty-two patients, was completed and formally opened Oct. 31, 1907. The wooden house on the lot was moved and successfully combined with the new building.

The arrangement of the building has proved most satisfactory. In the main wing the two wards, each with ten beds, receive an abundance of fresh air and sunlight. The wide verandas are constantly in use and make it possible for some of the patients to sleep out-doors. The quiet neighborhood and the pleasing prospect across the Fenway is in striking contrast to the surroundings of the former location of the Home.

The lower of the two wards has been named the Charles Pelham Curtis Memorial Ward, in honor of one whose devotion to the Home was unceasing during the forty-five years preceding his death in 1906.

The upper ward has been named the Sarah E. Read Ward. Miss Read has maintained a constant and personal interest in the patients of the Home for many years. Her numerous gifts of flowers and plants have done much to make the building cheerful and attractive. Through her generosity this ward has been entirely refurnished. To her we are also indebted for the hedge which surrounds the grounds.

It was estimated that to erect and move into the new building would cost $30,000 above the resources of the Home. We gratefully acknowledge $26,611.25 contributed in a generous response to the appeals of the Directors, as may be seen by the list of subscriptions on pages 15–20. The contributions to the building fund and the proceeds from the sale of the old building on McLean Street, which was sold for a larger sum than was anticipated, have proved sufficient to cover the amount paid for the land and the new building. Additional expense must be incurred for finishing the grounds, for furniture for the Home, awnings for the veranda, etc., and further contributions from those interested will be most gratefully received.

It is hoped that the present income of the Home will cover the increased cost of living, additional attendants, and the establishment of a trained nurse, whose services have added materially to the welfare and comfort of the patients.

A number of friends of the Home have signified their good will by becoming annual subscribers, an expression of interest and help aiding greatly in the efficiency and expansion of the work the Home has now undertaken.

At the end of last year (March 31, 1907) there were twelve patients in the Home. Since that time thirty-seven have been admitted, eleven have died, four have been discharged not relieved, ten discharged relieved, and two not treated. The number now remaining is twenty-two, of whom twenty are suffering from consumption, one from chronic bronchiectasis, and one from arthritis.

The accompanying tabular statement gives the diseases and the results of all cases treated in the Home since its establishment fifty-one years ago, though it does not include the present patients.

The Directors wish to express their obligations to Mrs. James B. Ayer, Mrs. S. Parkman Blake, Mrs. Charles P. Curtis, Mrs. J. Randolph Coolidge, Miss Emma F. Cary, Miss Mary Lord Clark, Mrs. C. C. Chadwick, Mrs. H. Cunningham, Dr. John Dixwell, Mrs. Henry S. Grew, Mrs. E. S. Hooper, Herford Club, Miss M. V. Iasigi, Mrs. Henry P. King, Miss A. P. Loring, Mrs. George G. Lowell, Mrs. A. Lawrence Lowell, Miss Georgina Lowell, Mrs. E. Roscoe Matthews, Miss Hannah Palfrey, Miss Sarah E. Read, Miss Katherine Rogers, Mrs. Robert S. Russell, Miss Helen G. Stevens, Mrs. Fred Stone, Miss Alice Schofield, Mrs. C. T. White, Miss T. W. White, Mrs. M. R. Wardwell, and Rev. Daniel D. Waldron, who have sent furnishings and fruits, flowers, and other delicacies to the Home.

The Directors desire to return their thanks to the Young Men's Christian Union for carriage rides during the warm season; also to the Boston Flower Mission and the Faith and Hope Association, for many special favors and other acts of kindness, to Dr. John Dixwell for furnishing music and flowers on different occasions, and to the Herford Club of Arlington Street Church, for a concert.

The friends of the Home are invited to visit the institution, and see for themselves the plan on which it is conducted. Any gifts may be sent to the Treasurer, Hon. James P. Parmenter, Suffolk Court House, or to the Home.

The Directors wish also to acknowledge the kind services rendered at all times by the physicians, as well as by the matron and nurse. We wish especially to thank those who have worked so faithfully and efficiently for the establishment of the Home on its new site.

Samuel A. Green,
President.
